Search Warrants

26. On or about October 22, 2018, Defendant Morrison swore to falsified facts in an affidavit in support of a search warrant for several locations, including Plaintiffs’ businesses’ location at 11935 E. Warren Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, as well as their personal residences in West Bloomfield, Michigan, for the seizure of various items, including but not limited to “[c]ontrolled substances, imitation controlled substances, suspected narcotics proceeds, firearms, items connected to the sales, possession, manufacture, use, storage, distribution, transportation, delivery, or concealment of controlled substances”, as well as [b]ooks, records and tally sheets indicating the sales of controlled substances.”

27. Defendant Morrison’s October 22, 2018 affidavit included allegations that, on September 25, 2018, an undercover Detroit Police Officer purchased marijuana from 11931 E. Warren Avenue, which was a unit of the Park Side Plaza strip mall that had no visible address, no signs, no markings, and appeared to be vacant.

28. Defendant Morrison’s October 22, 2018 affidavit included allegations that, on September 26, 2018, a search warrant was executed on the unmarked unit at 11931 E. Warren Avenue, which led to the confiscation of what was alleged to be marijuana and several ecstasy pills, as well as the arrest of Antwan Harper for Delivery of a Controlled Substance.

29. Defendant Morrison’s October 22, 2018 affidavit included allegations that, on October 8, 2018, Defendant Morrison observed “suspected buyers” enter and exit the unmarked unit at 11931 E. Warren Avenue, observed Antwan Harper open the door of 11931 E. Warren Avenue to greet the persons who entered, observed Antwan Harper “walk back and forth” between the unmarked unit at 11931 E. Warren Avenue and the Plaintiffs’ unit next door at 11935 E. Warren Avenue, and observed two persons enter the Plaintiffs’ unit at 11935 E. Warren Avenue before entering the unmarked unit at 11931 E. Warren Avenue.

30. Defendant Morrison’s October 22, 2018 affidavit included false allegations from Defendant Benitez that an unregistered, confidential informant stated that “the check cashing unit” at 11935 E. Warren Avenue had been selling heroin for years and that the confidential informant witnessed a person purchase heroin from a heavy-set Arabic male that was behind the counter at that location.

31. Defendant Morrison’s October 22, 2018 affidavit included allegations that, on October 17, 2018, Defendant Morrison witnessed an unidentified, black female in her 40’s enter the Plaintiff’s business at 11935 E. Warren Avenue, remain inside for “a minute or so” and then leave, which Defendant Morrison speculated was an insufficient amount of time for “a check to be verified and cashed.”

32. Defendant Morrison’s October 22, 2018 affidavit included allegations that, on October 18, 2018, Defendant Morrison witnessed an unidentified, black male in his 60's enter the Plaintiff's business at 11935 E. Warren Avenue, remain inside for "only 30 seconds or so" and then leave, which Defendant Morrison speculated was an insufficient amount of time to "process a check."

42. 43. Defendant Morrison intentionally omitted from his October 22, 2018 affidavit that, at all times relevant, Plaintiff Steven Putrus possessed a current registry card for the Michigan Medical Marihuana Program, which was validly issued by the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs.

Defendant Morrison's October 22, 2018 affidavit falsely claimed that there was "probable cause that controlled substances and narcotics proceeds will be found in each of the four listed target locations", which included Plaintiffs' business unit at 11935 E. Warren Avenue, each of their personal residences, as well as the unmarked unit at 11931 E. Warren Avenue.

126. The federal criminal complaint was supported by the October 24, 2018 affidavit of Defendant Philip Rodriguez, who attested that he spoke with Defendant Morrison on October 23, 2018 and Defendant Morrison stated that he "received information from a fellow narcotics officer that 11935 E. 132. A Detention hearing was held on November 1, 2018 before United States District Court Magistrate Judge Mona Majzoub.

133. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' deliberate falsehoods and reckless disregard for the truth that the substances that they seized from 11935 E. Warren Avenue were cocaine, heroin, and MDMA (ecstasy), Magistrate Judge Majzoub concluded that the street value of the alleged narcotics was so substantial that bond was not warranted and ordered that Plaintiffs be detained.

134. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' deliberate falsehoods and reckless disregard for the truth, an indictment was filed against Plaintiffs on November 13, 2018 charging Plaintiffs with (1) conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and to distribute controlled substances in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1), 841(b)(1)(A)(ii) and 846;

42 U.S.C. 1983 - CUSTOM OR PRACTICE OF TOLERATING THE VIOLATION OF FEDERAL RIGHTS - DEFENDANT CITY

199. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference each of the allegations contained in previous paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

200. At all times relevant, there was a clear and consistent pattern of corruption and misconduct within the City of Detroit Police Department's narcotics operations, which included, but was not limited to, routinely falsifying affidavits to support search warrants, falsely accusing citizens of possessing and/or selling drugs, as well as unlawfully stealing and/or seizing property obtained from searches.

201. The above-described pattern of corruption and misconduct within the City of Detroit Police Department's narcotics operations was so pervasive that there have been a series of internal probes.³

202. Former Detroit Police Officer Charles Flanagan ran the former Narcotics Section from 2013 to 2015 and stated that, when he took over the unit, he found “problems that existed long before [he] got there.”⁴

203. Flanagan reported to Chief Craig that he had uncovered numerous issues of corruption, including falsification of evidence, and that most of the problems that he encountered had existed for years.

204. On August 22, 2019, a team of Detroit Police investigators and FBI agents seized records and computer data as part of an ongoing internal probe into allegations of corruption in the department's drug operations. See footnote 1, supra.

205. Detroit Police Chief James Craig stated that he initiated the August 22, 2019 seizure due to corruption that has long been part of the narcotics operation. Id.

206. Detroit Police Chief James Craig disbanded the former narcotics unit in July of 2014 due to systemic violations and renamed the narcotics operation the “Major Violators Section” due to the rampant corruption. Id.

207. Following the 2014 disbandment, the corruption of the Detroit Police Department's narcotics operation continued. Id.

208. The corruption included officers planting evidence, lying to prosecutors in search warrant affidavits, robbing dope dealers and embezzling funds. See footnote 2, supra.

209. Detroit Police Chief James Craig has admitted that there is a pattern and practice of criminal misconduct in the narcotics unit. Id.

210. At all times relevant, the City of Detroit, through its appointed officials, employees, agents and/or representatives, knew or should have known that there was a clear and consistent pattern of corruption and misconduct within the City of Detroit Police Department's narcotics operations as described in the preceding paragraph and that such corruption and misconduct violated citizens' clearly established constitutionally protected rights to due process and to be free from criminal prosecution without probable cause.

211. At all times relevant, the City of Detroit was on notice that there was a clear and persistent pattern of corruption and misconduct within the City of Detroit Police Department's narcotics operations as described in the preceding paragraph and that such corruption and misconduct violated citizens' clearly established constitutionally protected rights to due process and to be free from criminal prosecution without probable cause.

212. For many years before the subject incident, the City of Detroit and its policy makers acquiesced in and tolerated the corruption and misconduct within the narcotics' unit that gave rise to the narcotics officers routinely falsifying affidavits to support search warrants and falsely accusing citizens of possessing and/or selling drugs, which allowed the narcotics officers to continue to engage in the unlawful behavior.

213. At all times relevant, the City of Detroit, through its appointed officials, employees, agents and/or representatives, knew or should have known that the training and supervision of its narcotics officers was inadequate for the tasks that the narcotics officers were performing, as described in the preceding paragraphs.

214. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, the City of Detroit had a custom or practice within its narcotics' unit of failing to adequately train and/or supervise its officers.

215. These failures to adequately train and/or supervise were evident by the years and years of narcotics officers' corruption and misconduct that went unnoticed and undisciplined by the City of Detroit.

216. The City of Detroit's custom or practice of tolerating its narcotics officers' corruption and misconduct, as well as its failure to adequately train and/or supervise, acted as the "moving force" behind the deprivation of Plaintiffs' clearly established constitutional rights.

217. There is a direct causal link between the City of Detroit's customs and/or practices and the injuries that Plaintiffs have suffered.

218. 219. As a direct and proximate result of the City of Detroit's custom or practice of tolerating the officers' violation of the citizens' clearly established constitutionally protected rights to due process and to be free from criminal prosecution without probable cause, Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer damage into the future, including but not limited to:

INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS

220. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference each of the allegations contained in previous paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

221. The Defendant officers influenced and/or participated in the prosecution against Plaintiffs when they intentionally and deliberately, or with a reckless disregard for the truth, made false statements, material misrepresentations and/or omissions as outlined above.

225. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendant officers' misconduct, Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer damage into the future, including but not limited to:
